

COMMUNITY MESSAGE

ARTIST-IN-RESIDENCE

The City of Ryde is pleased to announce that local painter and mixed media artist Louisa Chan has been selected for the 2024/2025 Artist-in-Residence (AiR) Program.

Louisa utilises her art as a transformative language to uplift mental health, inspire and bring healing and engagement across diverse communities.

Louisa's work explores the intersection of art and neuroscience, particularly focusing on how creativity fosters brain healing and mental well-being. Louisa's aim is to demonstrate the power of art to enhance cognitive function, emotional resilience and overall mental health, thus contributing to a healthier, more connected community.

The Artist-in-Residence Program focuses on the development of artists by providing recipients with a spacious studio environment in which to pursue and further extend their art practice. It also provides an opportunity to foster a dialogue about the benefit of art on individuals and the community.

The studio space is at Westward Cottage in the heart of Ryde at 8 Turner Street, not far from Top Ryde City shopping centre.

Council thanks and sends best wishes to Rooi Ping Lim, last year's Artist-in-Residence, who had some outstanding work displayed as well as hosting fantastic workshops created for the community.

SPRING GARDENS

There's still time for local green thumbs to get involved in City of Ryde's perennially popular Spring Garden Competition, with entries closing on Saturday 31 August.

This much-loved community event has a unique hands-on quality, providing gardeners with a chance to better their outdoor spaces as well as keeping active, creative, and establishing a wonderful zone for relaxation.

This competition, which has been held annually for more than 30 years, aims to showcase the amazing local garden spaces that have brought encouragement and joy to many. The City of Ryde is one of the few local councils still organising and providing a garden competition for its residents and community.

Entries to the 2024 Spring Garden Competition are free and all entries must be based in the City of Ryde local government area.

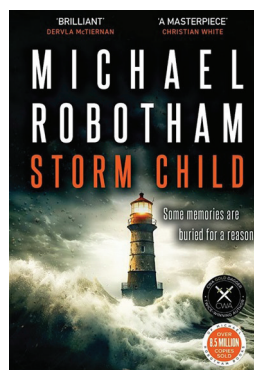

For more details on categories and entry criteria, go to: www.ryde.nsw.gov.au/GardenComp
